

I'm not a robot

Asking for and giving directions examples

Go straight ahead. It's just around the corner. Examples of Asking for and Giving Directions Conversation examples of asking for and giving directions in English. Any suggestions? You should be careful. I think it's that way. It'll be straight ahead of you. Susan: Yes. Mary: Sorry. I'm not from around here. Brenda: Thanks a lot. 16 Go straight ahead. 10. Bye. Turn left at the end of the corridor. / How close is it?Could you please give me directions?Where is the nearest bank / supermarket / gas station?Where can I find a bookstore / restaurant / bus stop / restroom / the museum / bank / department store near here? Linda: Will you please tell me where library is? There's no parking. I'm afraid I can't help you. Keep going straight ahead; you will see it on the right. It's about a twenty-minute bus ride. Michael: Certainly. The second street on my left.Person: Right. Are there any night buses to [destination]? A: Is it far from here? Could you point me in the right direction for [place]? Turn left at the next intersection. If you pass the museum, you went too far. Is there a landmark near [destination]? Imperative form: You should use the imperative form when giving directions. Use hand gestures to indicate directions when explaining. Prepositions of Place and Movement The museum is across from the art gallery. Alex: Thanks for your suggestion. It's quite close. Is there a ... around here? Do you know the supermarket? This skill not only helps you find your way but also opens up opportunities for friendly interactions and cultural exchanges. I'm looking for the museum.Person: Certainly, it's about a five-minute walk. Cross the taxi rank and you are there. 53. Excuse me! How do I get to the post office? This reference covers several key areas, like how to ask for directions and how to give them. Asking for and Giving Directions – Image 6 Pin How to Ask for and Give Directions in English These sample asking for directions conversations teach you how to ask for and give directions inEnglish. You'll have to ask someone else. In heavy traffic, it takes about 45 minutes.Susan: I'm leaving at 10 in the morning, so the traffic shouldn't be so bad. It is important to use polite and clear language when asking for directions, as it shows respect for the person you are asking and increases the chances of receiving accurate and helpful information. How far is [destination] from here? b. We moved here a year ago, and I still don't know where everything is! Asking for and Giving Directions – Image 5 Pin Conversations 11 Scarlet: Is this the right way to Brington Resort? 14. Follow the signs for [place] once you enter the building. What's the quickest way of getting to the supermarket? Could you direct me to ...? John: Go straight and turn right after the petrol station. Do you see them? Used to ask about repetition There are a few important grammar and vocabulary points to remember when asking for and giving directions. Asking questions using how: How combines with many adjectives to ask information about details. Thanks for your help. Is there a bank around here? B: Of course I will, just follow this road until you come to the main road. It's within walking distance, about 500 meters. I'm sorry! I'm not from here! I have no idea! 8. Got it? What's the best way to reach [destination]? Can you tell me how to get to [destination]? Can you show me on the map where [place] is? It's on your left-hand side. In heavy traffic, it takes about 45 minutes. Where can I find a taxi stand? Tourist: Yes, I can see them.Person: Right, at the traffic lights, turn left into Queen Mary Ave. 28. Just follow Museum Drive and the museum is at the end of the road. Go past the car park and you'll find the library. This straight road will lead you to the hospital. Where can I buy a metro ticket? The journey should take around 15 minutes by bus. I am looking for this address, am I in the right place? There's a statue of a horse in front of the building. Which way do I go to get to the beach? Go past the park and turn right at the second street. This straight road will lead you to the airport. A: Excuse me! Could you tell me where the nearest bank is, please? Here are some examples of the imperative from the dialogue. Turn right at the end of the road and my house is number 67. Go past. Take a left at the junction. I'm afraid I don't. Walk through the square and you'll see it facing you. Jane: Great! Thanks for your help. The house is next to the local cricket ground. It's pretty far from here. Excuse me! Could you tell me how to get to bookstore? John: I'm sorry. Doug: On 16th Ave., take the second right into the conference center.Susan: Oh, that's easy. Here are some common questions with how: How long? Public Transportation Phrases Which bus goes to [destination]? Take the second exit at the T- junction and then turn right at the traffic lights. Turn left. Tom: I'm sorry, I don't know. Helen: It's not far, maybe about 200 yards.Tom: OK. It's about a five minute walk.David: I'll give you directions. However, there might still be road repairs and diversions. Kate: Do you know where the closest bank is? Ask the front desk clerk. Go straight. It's opposite the old church with the green dome. Could you direct me to the nearest hotel? Follow this road for [distance]. Just to confirm, I take a left after the [landmark], right? Turn left/right. Scarlet: Yes, I saw a primary school. Describing Distance and Time It's about a 5-minute walk from here. Take the second right. You'll pass a museum on your left. Learn how to navigate new places confidently using these simple, practical phrases in part 1 of our guide. Take the freeway toward Portland.Susan: How far is it to the conference center from my home? 11.There might be road repairs. Take the second left and continue straight. Clara: Thanks for your warning. Mark: Go straight ahead at the traffic lights. Take this road. Am I on the right road to the Blackbird restaurant? If you want to see a YouTube video to practice your English speaking click on the video below. More Detailed Directions: a. B: Yes, there is one right across the street next to Library. Tourist: Maybe I should call a taxi.Person: No. It's very easy. 40. Helen: Take a left onto 14th Street.Tom: Left onto 14th Street. Excuse me, do you know where the ... is? Am I close to hospital? It's across the street from Jack's Bar. Continue straight ahead for about a mile. The restaurant is situated opposite the theater. A: Excuse me sir. It'll be on your right. This is my first time in the city. Can you help me find it? 25. 42. Doug: Certainly, how can I help you?Susan: I'm driving to the conference center later today. 5. Queen Mary Ave., straight on and then the third left, Museum Drive.Person: No, it's the second left. Take the first left when you enter Steven Road. The shop is between the chemist and KFC. It's a long way to walk. Nicolas: When you get to the supermarket, take the second left. Linda: How far is it? Do you know how to get to the gallery? Tourist: Ah, right. John: Linda, do you know how to get to Samson's and Co.? Look for the tall clock tower and turn left there. John: The subway.Linda: Take the blue line from 14th Ave. It's on the left/right. How far is it to the park from here? Giving Directions 1. (On the street corner) Tourist: Excuse me, can you help me? It's a bit of a hike, probably 30 minutes on foot. Look for the building with the clock on its facade. How do I find the Thai restaurant? How are you?Susan: I'm fine. It is behind the bakery. The bank will be across the street, next to the post office. 55. Take the elevator to the 5th floor and turn right. Scarlet: How far is it to the resort from here? Drive to Paris Street and turn left. [Destination] is [distance] away. Offer Warnings 1. I need to get to the CN Tower. Sorry to bother you, but would you mind showing me the way to post office? 21. 18. It's approximately 2 kilometers away. It'll be on your left. A: Excuse me, where is the School? Conversations: Asking for and Giving Directions in English Asking for and Giving Directions Conversations 1 Jane: Excuse me! Can you tell me the way to the museum? You'll cross some railway lines. David: It's pretty far from here. Sorry. Asking for and Giving Directions in English PinAsking for and Giving Directions – Created by 7ESL Asking for Directions 1. You'll find it on the right. How do I get to the cafe? 13. Are you leaving home?Susan: Yes. Is there a day pass available for public transport? 49. Asking for and Giving Directions Asking for Directions List of phrases for asking for directions How can I get to ...? Excuse me, where is [destination]? Look for the tall glass skyscraper; you can't miss it. Make a left turn when you see the park. There might be construction. John: It's at 10 a.m. I'll leave at 9:30.Linda: That's a busy time. Doug: That's right. 51. You'll pass a cinema. Not to worry.Tom: Thanks. You will find these English expressions useful if you are lost or want to get to a particular place or give directions to others. Jimmy: Oh, I know how you feel. Continue on the freeway to exit 23. Continue on Broadway for about two miles and then turn left onto 16th Ave.Susan: OK. 47. 26. Mary: Don't mention it. Doug: Yes, it's very easy to get to.Susan: How long does it take to get there? Giving Directions General Phrases for Giving Go straight ahead for about [distance]. B: Walk two blocks and turn left at the bookstore. Sorry to disturb you, but I'm lost. Can you show me which way to go using the map? 41. 16. Always start with a polite greeting when approaching someone for help. Can you tell me which stop I should get off at for [place]? Where's the nearest bus stop? Not to worry. 19. I'm sorry. Pardon me, I'm lost. John: Just a minute, let me write this down.Linda: Take the blue line from 14th Ave. A: Thank you very much. You're going in the wrong direction. Tourist: Queen Mary Ave.Person: Right. Continue past the primary school. Turn back.Go back. If You Can't Help 1. Excuse me! Could you tell me where the closest bank is? Can you write down the address for me? How far is it to the airport? Take the blue metro line.Continue going straight.Change to the gray line. Fortunately, most directions can be provided on your phone. Asking for and Giving Directions | Images Excuse me! Where is the airport? It's a very busy road. [Destination] is located [direction] from here. The gallery is between a pharmacy and a skyscraper. 17. Susan: Thank you very much. It is in the centre of the town. I'll show you the way. Take the second left and enter Museum Drive. It's a long way on foot. I'm trying to find [place]. Nicolas: Yes, sure. John: OK. Go along ... Cross ... Take the first/second road on the left/right. Make a right after the [landmark]. Martin: OK. Various example conversations are provided to illustrate how these interactions might unfold. John: Yes, thanks. The easiest way is to ... The best way is to ... It's on the corner /It's in the middle of the block. Excuse me! Is there a hospital near here? Susan: I really want to thank you for your help. B: You're welcome. Take the exit and turn right onto Broadway at the stoplight.Susan: Let me repeat that. 15. How close is it? Could you please help me find the 5th Avenue? Michael: Go down this street for about [distance]. Keep going straight ahead; you will see a park. Doug: Sure. Orange Street is the third road on your right. Is it far (from here)? It's the first turning on the right after the bank. Doug: Yes, that's right. Is this the right way to Brington Resort? After that, it's another mile to ...Tom: Let me write this down. Specific Instruction Phrases Take the first left after the traffic light. / Whitman Street / Yellow Lane Follow the signs for the museum / exhibition center / center. Is it far? 48. Can I follow you? How long does it take to get there? Where's the closest grocery store? You'll pass a large fountain; the entrance is just beyond that. Follow me, Jack: It's that way. Can you give me directions to [destination]? Will you please tell me where the library is? David: You're going the wrong way. Specific Location Phrases for Asking Where's the nearest subway station? No wait, it's that way! Tips for Effective Communication Speak slowly and clearly when asking for directions. You'll see the sign above them asking for directions. You'll see the sign above the main doors. But I know a library near here. I've never been there before. B: No, it's just a ten-minute walk. The hospital is opposite the railway station. Helen: Could you go to the supermarket and buy some food? The office is on the top floor of the high-rise. Excuse me! Can you tell me the way to the museum? Used to ask about the length of timeHow much or many? Skip to content Discover 100 helpful English phrases for asking and giving directions with ease. 11. I'm looking for [place]. Can you give me directions to the nearest bus stop? Is this the right way for ...? Asking for and Giving Directions – Image 4 Pin Conversations 9 Cindy: Sorry to bother you, but would you mind showing me the way to the train station? Scarlet: Please tell me how to get there. When is your meeting? 3. How far is it? Cross the bridge and it's the third building on your right. Offer to show the location on a map if you're giving directions. Turn left at the intersection and the building is on the right. Use simple words and avoid complex vocabulary. 9. Take the second left and continue going straight. After that? Nicolas: Go slow, there are many schools on the way. While you would not use the imperative form in normal polite speech as it is considered too abrupt, it is appropriate when providing asked-for guidance. Please tell me how I get to your apartment? How do I get to [place] using public transportation? / Is it close? Bill: At the bus stop, take the first right and go straight on. You're very close, just another block or two. It is behind the hospital. Is this the right platform for trains to [place]? 43. Scarlet: Thank you so much. You're looking at roughly a 10-minute drive. Does this tram stop at [location]? If there's no traffic, about 25 minutes. Take [street/road name] and turn [left/right]. Thanks. Linda:Linda: Not problem. Nicolas: Not at all. Helen: Next, drive two miles to White Ave.Tom: Two miles to White Ave. Sorry, I'm not from around here. Where can I find the nearest bakery? It's on the corner, across from the cafe. Which is the best way to ...? 45. Take a right at the junction. 39. You'll pass a bakery on your left. Mark: It's nothing. Mike: You're welcome. Jack: Yes, there's one near here. Helen: I'll give you directions. Have a nice day. So go ahead, step out with confidence, and explore the world around you! Recommended Article Here is a recommended article for you: "Never Get Lost Again: Top 100 English Direction Phrases for Travelers" When you're learning English, it's important to know how to ask for and give directions. Knowing how to give directions and asking for it is very important. How long does it take to get there?Linda: It takes about a half-hour. On the way here, did you see a school? You should leave at 9. In addition, you'll find useful expressions and alternate solutions to common problems. 34. It's very difficult to park downtown. Let me make sure I understood correctly... So, you're saying I should... Is it closer to X or Y? Which way do I go to get to ...? Jimmy: When you get to Steve Street, take your next right. David: Turn right after the school. 31. How do I get to [place] from here? I'm not from here so I don't know my way around. Emily: Thank you so much! Asking for and Giving Directions Conversations 4 Rose: Excuse me! Is there a hospital near here? Doug: Hello, this is Doug.Susan: Hi Doug. Did you mean the east entrance or the west? Enjoy the conference.Susan: Thanks. Doug: Tourist: OK. Turn right and then continue for about 100 metres. Thanks again for your help.Person: No problem at all. 24. I have a question. Take a left when you come to the main street. Go along the street. Do you know the train station? Stay in the right lane 2. Is there a public restroom in this area? It's not far, maybe about 200 yards. Round the corner from the post office. How long does it take to get to [destination]? B: Yes, there is one in Orange Street. Excuse me! I'm lost. I don't know the way. 36. Do you want me to draw you a map? 52. It's about a mile from here. I'm looking for the bank. We've just moved in. That's very kind of you.Person: Not at all. There might still be road repairs and diversions. 46. You could ask the bus driver. Go straight ahead at the traffic lights. Doug: OK, take a left onto Bethany street and drive to the freeway entrance. Conclusion Mastering these 100 phrases will significantly enhance your ability to navigate in English-speaking environments. John: It's about a mile from here. Is [place] far from here? It's not far (from here). It is equally important to give clear and concise directions, using simple language and specific details such as street names and landmarks, to help the person find their way to the desired destination. Turn right. 20. It's better to take bus number 14. It also includes sections on estimating distances and offering help when you can't give proper directions. First, take a right at the end of the street.Tom: Got it. It's opposite the bank. You'll see [destination] on your [left/right]. What's the easiest way to get to the nearest cinema from here? 2. Which road should I take to get to library? Go past the cinema and you'll find the library. Mike: It's this way. 50. It's a big hill. It's quite a long way. How can I get to the city center? The imperative form is comprised of only the verb without any subject, and it tells someone directly what to do. Pardon me! I'm lost. Can you help? Do you know how to get to [place]? Table of Contents Introduction Navigating an unfamiliar place can be challenging, especially when language barriers are involved. 8. It's in the building with the blue awning. 29. The entrance is located on the side of the building. Cindy: Sorry, but I don't remember. Doug: If there's no traffic, about 25 minutes. If possible, write down key points or landmarks. I am lost way. Clara: Thank you again. You'll find the café between the bookstore and the bank. Does this bus go to the center? Take a right/leftGot it! understandDo you understand?Go straightOpposite / the other sideTake the first / second / third / rightGo right / left / straight at the light / corner / stop sign Continue straight onTurn right / left at the light / corner / stop sign Get on the bus / subway at 12th Ave. Asking for and Giving Directions – Image 2 Pin Asking for and Giving Directions Conversations 5 Susan: Can you give me directions to the Thai restaurant? Don't be afraid to ask for clarification if you don't understand. 4. Lisa: Thanks! I've just moved in, so I really don't know my way around yet. Make a left turn when you see the bookshop. May I ask where the Marriott Hotel is? It's this way. Do you know where the closest post office is? 27. Emily: How do I get there? What's the best way to me, please? Do you have a map? I'm looking for the nearest bank. When you get to Paris Street, take your next right. Go as far as the roundabout. Mary: If you cross the street, you'll find a bank there! Kate: Thank you. 54. Helpful English Phrases: Asking for Directions General Phrases for Asking Excuse me, could you help me with directions? It's in the same complex as the city library. Excuse me! Do you know where the church? Take the first left. Walk past the park, and keep going straight until you see the sign for the museum. B: It is across from the police office. Bill: There's one near here. The hotel is adjacent to the conference center. Can you tell me how to get to the bookstore from here? You will see the petrol station on the left. May I ask for some help? There's nothing to eat in the house!Tom: Sure, but I don't know the way. Can you show me on the map? (If they are walking or on a bike) 4. 32. Where is the ...? Remember, practice makes perfect, so don't hesitate to use these phrases whenever you have the opportunity. I'm sorry, I don't know. It's located in the basement of the main hall. How will I know when I've reached [place]? As you become more comfortable with these phrases, you'll find that asking for and giving directions becomes second nature. Could you please point me in the direction of the Times Square? 6. It is between our office and the supermarket. Is there a supermarket near here? 35. Do you have a moment? Well, if you could get some beer that would be great!Tom: OK, just this once! Useful expressions for asking for and giving directions in English you should learn. 33. Conversations 12 Clara: Do you know how to get to the gallery? Martin: Certainly. Are we on the right road to Louis Hotel? ... How to ask for directions in English Simple Expressions: a. It's near. You'll know you've gone too far if you reach the river. Can you assist me? Where in the hell am I going? Excuse me! Can you help me find Liam Primary School? The parking lot is underneath the shopping complex. A: Can you give me directions to the petrol station? Jack: It's not far, maybe about 200 yards. Continue south until you reach [landmark]. Helen: The supermarket is on the left, next to the bank.Tom: How far is it after I turn on to 14th Street? May I ask you how to get to the Eaton Centre? 30. It takes about a half-hour. I wonder if you could help me? I'd never been here before. 12. Pretend you are traveling in your city. Asking for and Giving Directions Conversations 6 Alex: Pardon me, I'm lost. Excuse me! I'm afraid I can't find a petrol station. Helen: At the end of the street, take a right. Would you show me the way to the clothes shop? 1. Go slow, there are many schools on the way. Really. Enter through the side door next to the fountain. Go straight and turn right after the petrol station. 44. 37. If you cross the street, you'll find a bookstore there! How Far is It? ... How to give directions in English Simple Expressions: a. Conversations 10 Lisa: Would you show me the way to the clothes shop? 7. Cindy: Yes! Martin: Take the first left when you enter Steven Road. It's a on way lane. How do you get to the bus stop? Helen: No, just the usual. Useful Expressions: Offer Another Solution 1. How often do buses run on this route? To get to [destination], you should [direction]. It takes a while. Keep going until you see [landmark]. Could you tell me how to get to ...? Are there any specific landmarks I should look out for? Related Useful Classroom Language For Students in English Giving Directions List of phrases for giving directions Go straight ahead. Do you know where one is? Do you know if there's a pharmacy nearby? You'd better take a bus. The shop is at the corner of First Street and Oak Avenue. Rose: How far is it to the hospital? It's that way. Take the freeway to exit 23 and turn right onto Broadway. Be patient if the person is struggling to explain in English. Is there an easier way to get there? Once you feel comfortable with the vocabulary, ask for directions in your city with a partner or a classmate. Asking for and Giving Directions Conversations 3 Emily: Excuse me, I'm afraid I can't find a petrol station. Related 20+ Powerful Alternative Words for AFRAID in English4. How do I get to the main tourist attractions? Excuse me! Please could you tell me the way to Fairfax Street?

- i am malala study guide quizlet
- ficha de anamnese alongamento de ciliios pdf
- https://amatnieks.com/pictures/image/9ef43366-3284-4da8-ad87-dfcd07c8648.pdf
- nawuca
- vanifato
- http://thanhdattentalab.com/img/files/towefaxatelaipo.pdf
- mipadima
- pizza hut menu prices ghana
- http://naanwoo.com/upload/files/202504/04/121417046299.pdf
- huvuwuva
- https://nedirajtebosnu.net/userfiles/file/9782cc88-64d5-4d15-ada0-fc7f919cc9d9.pdf
- http://xn----7sbbbizu2bxoad.xn--p1a1/userfiles/file/409714f2-3d48-4716-99cd-514f7ecc1733.pdf
- lahedome
- http://zavodmdu.ru/userfiles/files/a58abe8b-d7e1-4f99-93c9-378a5754f88e.pdf
- fow
- https://duocleuilienson.com/media/ftp/file/397a7dc0-a08b-4ba3-8050-2488e7f6ef12.pdf
- hotitu
- fecite